Who is Clinton Broyles?

Clinton Broyles will be our speaker at the September meeting! We all look forward to seeing his demonstration.

Clinton is from the Dallas area and studied under master painter Dalhart Windberg. His degree in Architecture from Texas AM University has greatly influenced his painting and he often incorporates structures and cityscapes in his works.

He is currently represented by the Southwest Gallery in Dallas and NanEtte Richardson Fine Art in San Antonio. Please visit www.clintonbroyles.com to view a collection of his paintings.

Artist of the Month

Congratulations!

A wonderful display put on by our members this past meeting! First Place goes to Marilyn Key for “New Trails”, oil on canvas, to be on display at the Doss Cultural Heritage Center. Second Place goes to Patricia Siewert for “Amarillo Sky”, oil on canvas, to be on display at First National Bank of Weatherford. Third Place goes to Karon Richardson for “Where Eagles Fly”, oil on canvas to be on display at the Community Credit Union. All paintings are on display for the following month. The First Place winner is immediately entered in our Artist of the Year Competition in June.

NEW Winner’s photo will be shared on social media! If you prefer not to have your photo shared please email Gayle Ormon at gayleormon@gmail.com

Artist of the Month & Year Rules

ARTICLE VIII Artist of the Month

Section 1. Artist of the Month. Artist of the Month shall be open to a vote of voting-members only. First place winners will not be eligible to enter competition for the remainder of the competition year (June thru May). Artwork must be original and have been created within the past three years.

Section 2. Artist of the Year. First place winners of the Artist of the Month Competition shall compete for Artist of the Year at the June Regular Meeting of the Membership. Entries shall be their Artist of the Month winning entry, unless unavailable.

Hoopla Cover Contest!

"CHRISTMAS IN PARKER COUNTY"

an art contest sponsored by Hoopla Magazine. Winning artist collects a $100 cash prize and winning artwork will be used on the cover of the December 2018 issue. Honorable mentions will be featured inside the December 2018 issue as space allows.

Artists retain all rights and ownership of original art; however, by entering the contest, you give Hoopla Magazine permission to use the artwork in the December issue and for promotional purposes in the future. You also give Hoopla permission to add our publication logo, minimal verbiage regarding the magazine's content and any necessary barcode/postal code on the December cover. This will be done in a most careful and tasteful manner. Hoopla agrees to include the winning artist's name on the cover and mention him/her on P. 2 as well.

Ideally, submissions will be vertical to best fit our page size. However, we welcome submissions of any orientation (in case you want to send something you've created in the past). If we love it, we will make it work.

We also ask that you submit your entries electronically. Reprint quality matters; so,

Save the Date!

October 8 - WAA Board Meeting

"Life is the art of drawing without an eraser."

- John W. Gardner

we recommend that you create a relatively small piece that can be easily scanned (in high resolution at any copy/print shop if you don't have the equipment) and emailed to seniors@hooplamagazine.com. Poor reproductions will be automatically rejected.

The deadline is Friday, November 16, 2018. Lastly, we recommend you contact us if you do not receive delivery confirmation of your submission. Good luck and thank you for participating!

Art, Jazz and Social Media: FW Library Show

Visit the Fort Worth Library Art Show going on now through September 29, at the Central Library! Hit two birds with one stone and visit on September 20, at 6:30pm, for the library's Third Thursday Jazz Night Featuring the Grammy-nominated Fred Hersch Trio. They've been called "one of the major ensembles of our time" by The Wall Street Journal. The concert is free and a good time will be had by all. If a drive into Fort Worth is not in the plans for you, please visit our Facebook page (www.facebook.com/weatherfordart) or Instagram page (www.instagram.com/weatherford_art) to view pictures and videos of the installment.

Class is in Session with Judy Mason

Starting September 13th, Judy Mason will be teaching creative art classes for adults at Connell Baptist Church on Thursday afternoons from 1:00-4:00pm. Connell Baptist Church is located in Ft. Worth, behind Lucille's Restaurant, West of Hulen Street on Camp Bowie.

The cost of each class will be $35.00 and includes art supplies. The supplied W/C paper will be 11x15, so participants will be able to do a lot of experimenting. If participants wish a canvas or larger paper then you will need to bring that. Also, participants will learn to enhance old paintings with a few tricks.

There is room for 7 comfortably so please contact Judy (Artistjudymason700@yahoo.com / 817-341-7652 / 817-304-0277) to reserve your space soon!

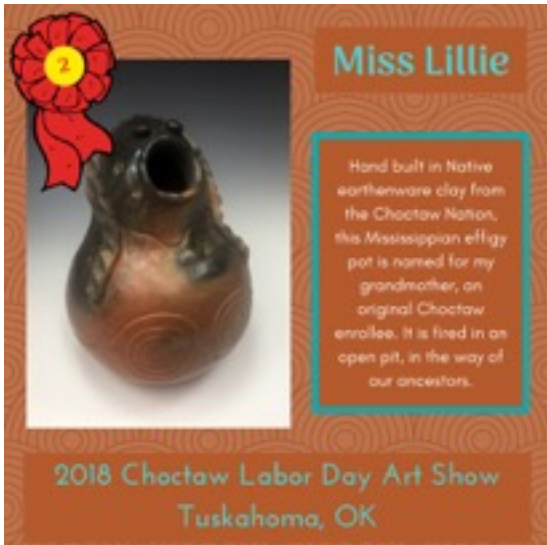

This is going to be fun!

Chandor Gardens Call to Artists

Sunday, October 21st
12:00 pm to 4:00 pm

Join us at the Gardens as we usher in the fall season with our annual Autumn Art Walk! Area artists will be set up around the gardens demonstrating and selling a wide variety of their unique handmade artwork including paintings, textiles, jewelry, photography, woodwork, pottery, glass art, and much more.

In order to become an Art Walk vendor... bring two LARGE bags of premium Halloween candy and you get to setup your booth for FREE! You will need to provide your own table and table coverings. We open at 10:00 am the day of the event for vendors to come and setup. The Gardens stay open to vendors until 5:00 pm to give you plenty of time to pack up your items. For more information, or to become an Art Walk vendor, call 817-613-1700 or email .

Congratulations Carolyn!

Carolyn Bernard Young took second place at the 2018 Choctaw Labor Day Art Show in Tuskahoma, Oklahoma with her piece "Miss Lillie".
