'Spirit of the West' Winners

The Spirit of the West Show held at the Doss Cultural Heritage Center was a great success. There were 28 artists and 58 works of art entered in oil, watercolor, pastel, sculpture and photography. Thanks to the Doss for helping WAA hang this show with great identifications of all the works. The judge was Randy Meador who graciously came to the reception and spoke to artists afterward.

Winners were judged on composition, use of color, and overall appeal to the 'Spirit of the West'. Best of Show honors went to Jack Wolfston for his sculpture titled 'Longhorn Stretch'. Awards of Distinction went also to Pamela Steege for her photo 'Daddy's Hands', Billie Cochrum for her pastel 'ElVaquero Jubilado', Eric Nelson for his painting 'Brazos', Stacey Watkins for her sculpture 'Circled by Heaven', Debra Sue Waters for her painting 'Her Mother's Jewelry', and to Jack Eidson for his paintings 'Monuments in the Sky'. A congratulations goes to each for their beautiful and intriguing work.

THINKING OUTSIDE THE BOX

Juried Show Call for Entry.

Seeking 2D paintings and Drawings. Unconventional, novel and inventive are words that come to mind when we hear the phrase “think outside the box”. We invite you to push your boundaries and break away from the expected and mundane. This theme has a wide interpretation, but in case you need some ideas, we suggest exploring an unusual or distorted perspective. Employ symbolism in a new way. Use optical illusions or a unique application of paint. Challenge yourself and let your creativity run free.
